DISCLAIMER:

- Issuance of visa does not guarantee entry to the Republic of Indonesia, the decision of entry remains the right of the Immigration Officer at the port of entry.
- At the immigration checkpoint, you must present a passport with more than six months validity.
- If you are using a new passport, you must bring the registered passport in the visa application.
- If you meet the conditions, you will receive an electronic limited stay permit (e-ITAS) and Re-Entry Permit upon arrival (you do not need to go to the immigration office to obtain a Limited Stay Permit and Re-Entry Permit).
- In addition to the electronic limited stay permit, the limited stay permit also has a physical card available at the immigration office.
- Staying in Indonesia over the period of your stay permit, engaging in prohibited activities, not complying with visa conditions, and/or not complying with Indonesian laws may result in you paying fines, being deported, and/or other legal charges.
